FERRID RECEPTION
TO ZIONIST LEADERS

Metropolitan Open House Jammed in Honor of Weim-mann and Einstein.

PERSECUTION SPUR T0 HOPE

Rabbi Silver, Judge Julian Mack, Judge Lehman Tell Visitors
American Jews Will Aid.

Evert seat in the Metropolitan Open House, from the pit to the last row was occupied last night by a crowd of people who stood at a reception given by American Ziionists in honor of Dr. David Weim-mann, head of the International Zionist organization. The reception was held in the Museum of the History and Scientific of the Polish Jews, exponent of the theory of relativity, and his associates who are in this country to discuss the Zionism movement. They applauded long and frequently, and, better yet, they gave new hope of a home for Jews in Palestine under British rule.

"Our Jews of America will respond," Judge Lehman declared. "No, that the world has been convinced.
Jews of America will respond.
"Our hearts are in this movement; we tell you what will help and what will stimulate. We believe in the justice of our cause. We are looking for the day when all our people—just that new side of our people—will be able to flay on the source. It is not going to break our eternal and dominate the range of our people.

"Our people of all the real all of his spirit until he is persecuted, until they are beginning to shout their story. We have to give them the fear and every attack on our people, will be the question and the answer, the Jews.

"Jews, by love schools and synagogues and the whole life of the people in Palestine, and Dr. Ben Zion Mossensohn and Rabbi Max Lerner and Judge Julian E. Mack.

"Our people is the history of the Jewish people. Judge Mack, who spoke, said the Jew has heard the call of his suffering brothers and the American Jews will hear the call of their own people." Judge Irving Lehman said.

"We must do all we can to reprove the Jewish people. Their physical distress must not slacken.
Jews must help them. And we give in accordance with their needs or the opposite out of the heart.

Our enemies have thrown in the world to show the world that the Jews are Jewish and from the curtains of duty is sounded.

Lehman also said there was to be a conference representing American Jews, also welcomed the Visi-

"Whatever our views have been in the past," he said, "our Jews love these people and are proud of their history can remain affirmative in the peace and, tha of the world have spoken. The upportunities are the ideal of the Israel. Palestine can be made egalitarian. We are not going too far from there that the fiery words of propephets and apostles will still be a meaning of justice, love and mercy.

All the Jews should help to build up Palestine and make it a home for less Jews, but as a religious, a spiritual and a cultural center. You cannot build up a land by enthusiasm.
Action is necessary, because words and sacrifice are necessary; and above all, our countrymen in America feel that in all these the Jews of America will

Dr. Wizemann asked the audience to stand as a sign of the interest of the United States inPalestine, and what the State has done for the fulfillment of Jewish aspirations in Palestine, and what it could do for the development of Palestine agriculturally.

"A loyalty must be questioned whether the Jewish people are sacrifices; and above all, the States in Palestine, and what it could do for development of Palestine agriculturally.
